

IC-RDML 70b

Decoration and stacking stations

With the decoration technology, in-mold labeling in thermoforming, IML-T®, ILLIG offers a flexible solution for applying attractive labeling to cups and containers in different shapes and sizes during the forming process. The IML-T® unit IC-RDML 70b offers a wide range of different options for effectively decorating your formed parts.

ILLIG holds the patent to the in-mold labeling technology in thermoforming (IML-T®) – one of many ILLIG milestones in the thermoforming industry. The flexible labeling unit IC-RDML 70b with a forming area of 680 mm x 330 mm with a maximum tool layout of 18 cavities is connected to the IC-RDM 70K forming machine. The technology enables the application of attractive, vivid, photo-quality labels on up to five sides of the formed part. In contrast to wrap labeling, right-angle walls are not necessary. IML-T® by ILLIG will help you to be successful at the point of sale.
